THE financial situation does not seem to improve, but one W. W. Finley says the South will be the first to recover.

THE County Executive Committee meets today at Halletsville to provide for holding the prima ry election on May 2nd.

LARGE crowds are greeting Senator Bailey wherever he speaks. He is holding all his old friends and making myriads of new ones.

THE County Democratic Executive Committees of the different counties are making strong efforts to provide ways and means for holding the Bailey primaries on May 2nd., but a great many counties will default on account of the expense.

REPORTS are coming in from various parts of the State that the anti-Bailey men after forcing the primary on the Bailey side, are shirking their share of the responsibility and refusing to contribute to the expense of holding the primary.

Prohibition in 1887.

At the State prohibition elect. ion in 1887 the anti-majority was 91,857. The total vote was, for prohibition 129,270 votes and and Sunday. against prohibition 280,627 votes.

Judge C. K. Bell of Fort Worth is against Senator J. W. Bailey; another defeated candidate gone wrong.-Mouiton Eagle.

Let us use, perhaps Bailey's little side remark about the "Campbells are coming," may have bad something to do with Bell's change of heart.

On April I the government will assort the right, (paternalistic, as it may be) to inspect the dates on news-papers and decline to admit to mails at pound rates all papers addressed to subscribers who are more than 12 months in arrears. So If you are any degree related to Judge D. E. Linquent, it behooves you to call at The Inquirer office before that date and square yourselves with us, otherwise we shall have no other alternative than to cut you off .- Gonzales
